PRINGLE® Training, Auditing and Consulting Services

PRINGLE® Training sessions, auditing and consulting services are directed by Ms. Laura N. Pringle and Mr. Lynn A. Pringle, principals of Pringle Publications Corporation and the law firm Pringle & Pringle, A Professional Corporation. Ms. Pringle will talk with you to schedule and design the services to concentrate on the areas which are priorities for you. Meetings with management and/or board members as well as training and auditing are scheduled in a manner which fits with your time demands. PRINGLE® Consulting services are available to lead strategic planning and other Board meetings and to assist with corrective action. These Services include meeting with Management and Board members to finalize policies and procedures to prepare for examinations and to meet changing regulatory requirements and economic challenges. In addition to lending and operations issues, strategic goals and new product offerings are covered in planning sessions and documented for upcoming examinations. Please contact us for more information on these services.

LAURA N. PRINGLE received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Iowa College of Law in 1977, completing her degree work at Emory University Law School. Her practice is concentrated primarily in the areas of Financial Institutions Regulatory Law, Banking, Commercial and Corporate Law. Ms. Pringle is a principal of Pringle Publications Corporation, which developed the PRINGLE® Products for financial institutions and is the primary author of the PRINGLE® Compliance Policies and Audit Procedures and PRINGLE® Safety & Soundness Policies and Audit Procedures, as well as other products for financial institutions, affiliates, and other related parties. Ms. Pringle has served as Co-Chairman of the Enforcement and Director's Liability Committee of the Banking Committee of the American Bar Association. Ms. Pringle has worked in-house and as outside counsel for financial institutions and financial trade associations. She has also served as a staff attorney for the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and lectured and taught both at the law school level and at many legal and banking seminars.

LYNN A. PRINGLE received his Juris Doctorate in 1977 from the National Law Center of the George Washington University. Mr. Pringle's practice is concentrated in the areas of Corporate, Banking, Transactions, Bankruptcy and Commercial Law and Civil Litigation. Mr. Pringle's banking and corporate practice includes an emphasis on merger and acquisition transactions. Mr. Pringle is also a principal of Pringle Publications Corporation, provider of PRINGLE® Products for financial institutions, and a long-standing member of the National Panel of Commercial Arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association.
